

Call for Entries

The 26th Tel-Aviv International Student Film Festival

The International Digital Media Competition and Exhibition

We are delighted to invite your school to submit its recent student projects to the 2024 International Digital Media Competition and Exhibition.

The festival will take place from August 14th – 20th, 2024, in Tel Aviv, Israel.

The Tel Aviv International Student Film Festival was established in 1986 as an initiative of students. The festival is managed and produced solely by volunteer film students, who spread their cinematic passion and enrich the festival with a vibrant unique atmosphere for which it is famous. Nowadays, the festival is ranked by CILECT as the largest in its field and one of the world's top three most important.

The festival is an opportunity for young filmmakers from all over the world to present short innovative cinema, and participate in gala screenings, masterclasses, conferences, and special tributes.

In its seventh edition, the International Digital Media Competition will present an exhibition of narrative projects created by students from all around the world, on various digital platforms. The International Digital Media Competition will focus on projects in the following categories:

Web / VR / AR / MR / Spherical Video (360) / Transmedia Storytelling / VFX based narrative / Interactive Storytelling / Web series / AI based narrative / Video Games / Animated Films

★ Submissions are open only for students studying at a higher education institute.

Click here for online submission & regulations

Submission deadline: January 31st, 2024

Deadline extension: February 29th, 2024

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

Arielle Skladman and Shaked Reguev

Directors of the Digital Media Competition

Email: dgtlstorytelling.tau@gmail.com